

Dialogue 250

2026-27 Civic Literacy Fellowship for Secondary Social Studies Teachers

- ★ Build your capacity to facilitate civic dialogue and engagement around the most essential primary sources from 250 years of U.S. History
- ★ Engage in rigorous in-person and virtual PD led by Purdue University experts
- ★ Teach high-quality, pre-built civic-literacy instructional sequences to students
- ★ Connect in a community of practice with other D250 fellows
- ★ Impact students' skills, helping them to engage in productive civic dialogue and to engage in the kind of inquiry necessary for navigating 21st century civic life

LDC STUDENTS GAIN

4-9 MONTHS OF ADDITIONAL LEARNING IN 1 SCHOOL YEAR

Receive stipend funding of up to $2,000

to support your professional efforts during the 2026-27 school year.

D250 is funded through a USDOE AHC-Seminars grant.

← Scan this QR code or visit LDC.org/d250 to learn more, complete an interest form, or to apply!

Need more information? Contact us at d250@LDC.org